

2nd grade imaginative writing prompts

- Imagine clouds were made of marshmallow goo. Write a story about it.
- Imagine what would happen if your pet could talk. Think about the things that your pet would like or dislike about its life, and the things that would be important to your pet! Write a story about the day you spent with your talking pet.
- Imagine you were given the ability to fly for 48 hours. Write a story about your adventure.
- Imagine you woke up to find the world was made of candy. Write a story about what happened next.
- Imagine you run into a sleepy bear who woke up from hibernation. Write a story about your adventure.
- Imagine you found a pot of gold. Write a story about what happens.
- Imagine you were a kite. Write a story about what kind of adventure you might have.
- Imagine the wind lifted you high into the air. Write a story about your adventure.
- Imagine you found a set of mysterious footprints. Write a story about who or what they lead to.
- Imagine you were a raindrop. What would it be like? Write a story to tell about it.
- Imagine a whopper of a tale that would explain why my homework wasn't done.
- Imagine you found a dark cave. Write a story about what adventure you had when you went inside.
- Imagine you're cleaning the basement and you find a strange-looking bottle. Write a story about it.
- Imagine you invented a time machine. Which time in the past will you visit first? Write a story about it.